Peugeot Invest to sell its stake in Tikehau Capital Advisors to its management

Peugeot Invest today announced the sale of its stake in Tikehau Capital Advisors (TCA), Tikehau Capital's main shareholder, to its management, after a 7-year partnership.

As the main asset of TCA, Tikehau Capital has experienced an accelerated development to successfully establish itself as a leading player in alternative asset management since Peugeot Invest's investment in 2016. Tikehau Capital's assets under management have grown almost fourfold to reach € 38.8 billion as of 31 December 2022, driven by the strong performance of the asset management business and a successful strategy of diversification into promising asset classes such as private equity and real assets (real estate, infrastructure).

Alongside the founders, Peugeot Invest, as a shareholder of TCA and Tikehau Capital, accompanied this sustained growth and the build-up of a structured platform, including the listing of Tikehau Capital, international expansion, and fruitful acquisitions.

Peugeot Invest will remain a partner of Tikehau Capital, as a shareholder of the listed company, through co-investments and as an investor in some of its funds.

Robert Peugeot, Chairman of Peugeot Invest, commented: « We are delighted to have played our role as a long-term shareholder by supporting TCA for the past 7 years. The entrepreneurial adventure of Tikehau Capital is based on a solid shareholder base, and we are proud to have supported TCA, alongside the founders and the management team, to make Tikehau Capital a leading alternative asset manager. Peugeot Invest will continue to entertain close ties with the group. »
